

Take care of diabetic foot patients with us

Diabetic foot ulceration

at a Glance

Half a billion diabetic patients
worldwide

3 million patients
in Poland

9 million patients
in Germany

Statistically 25%
of diabetic patients
will develop foot
ulcers in their lifetime

Foot ulcers (chronic wounds on the bottom of the feet)
lead to disability
and amputations.

System

AUTOCAST

more accessible

tailored to patient's needs

safer
wound healing

easy to use

IMPROVING THE TREATMENT OF DIABETIC FOOT PATIENTS

The innovative solution designed to transform diabetic foot care. Our advanced insole technology is tailored to prevent and treat foot ulcers, a common complication of diabetes.

By combining personalized treatment plans with cutting-edge stimulation technology, AutoCast accelerates healing, improves blood flow and reduces the risk of infections.

Take care of diabetic foot patients with us

AUTOCAST

Why choose AutoCast?

Each treatment plan is customized to meet your unique needs, ensuring optimal comfort and effectiveness.

AutoCast doesn't just treat symptoms – it prevents complications before they occur, empowering you to take control of your foot health.

With AutoCast's advanced stimulation technology, you can experience faster healing and better outcomes.

Say goodbye to diabetic foot complications!

Speak to your healthcare provider today about incorporating AutoCast into your diabetes management plan.

www.autocast.tech